

ANDREW BUCHANAN/THE NORTHWEST FLOWER & GARDEN SHOW

A Blooming Good Time

Enjoy a day of fun surrounded by the promise of spring in an unsurpassed setting at the 18th Annual Northwest Flower & Garden Show. Held Feb. 8-12, at the Washington State Convention Center in Seattle, this floral festival features numerous demonstration gardens and seminars by internationally renowned horticulturists and landscape gardeners. New to the show this year are a second-home living exhibit, a flower market, an expanded children's area and a historical exhibit of the American flowerpot with displays of significant replicas and live pottery demonstrations. Attracting more than 60,000 visitors each year, the Northwest Flower & Garden Show has blossomed into the third largest spring flower show in North America.
