

MATTHEW LAWRENCE/TAPROOT THEATRE

Pat Sibley as Bellomy, Jeff Berryman as El Gallo and Faith Russell as Hucklebee (l-r) in the 2005 performance of The Fantasticks.

Tapping into Talent

Commemorating its 30th anniversary, Taproot Theatre celebrates a history of challenging, laughter-filled and thought provoking theater with a season of audience and critically acclaimed revivals. Taproot's festive season includes John Olive's tender love story, "The Voice of the Prairie;" Larry Shue's hilarious comedy "The Foreigner;" Connie Ray and Alan Bailey's bluegrass gospel musical, "Smoke on the Mountain" and George Bernard Shaw's classic, witty comedy, "Arms and the Man." Taproot Theatre's box office is located at 204 N 85th St. For additional information go to www.taproottheatre.org or contact the box office at 206-781-9707, or e-mail box@taproottheatre.org. Performances are Wednesday through Saturday evenings and Saturday matinees. The theater also offers an Acting Studio with classes year-round for youth and adults. Budding thespians will find classes to help develop their acting skills, while more-seasoned actors can build on their knowledge and learn new techniques.